Re: Final Review: Proposed Revised APM Section 133-17-g-j, Limitation on Total Period of Service with Certain Academic Titles

Dear Susan,

At your request, I circulated for Senate review the final proposed revisions to APM 133-17-g-j expanding the permitted reasons for stopping the eight-year service limitation “tenure clock” to other personal circumstances that may impede a faculty member’s duties or timely research progress.

The Academic Council endorsed the revisions at its June 24 meeting. The letters from the two Academic Senate divisions that submitted formal comments (UCSC and UCLA) are attached for your reference.

Thank you for being responsive to the changes and clarifications suggested by Senate reviewers during the initial review in December 2014, and as always, thank you for the opportunity to opine.

Sincerely,

Mary Gilly, Chair
Academic Council

Re: Final Review of Proposed Revised Academic Personnel Policy Manual (APM) Section 133-17-g-j, Limitation on Total Period of Service with Certain Academic Titles

Dear Mary,

The Executive Board of the UCLA Academic Senate distributed the proposed revisions to APM 133-17-g-j to the committees that originally opined; various responses are available online. The committees agreed that the revisions in this final version adequately address the concerns of the preliminary reviewers and therefore raised no objection to the final revision.

Please feel free to contact me if you should have any questions.

Re: Final Review of Proposed Revised Academic Personnel Manual Section 133-17-g-j, Limitation on Total Period of Service with Certain Academic Titles

Dear Mary,

The UC Santa Cruz Division has reviewed and discussed the proposed revised Academic Personnel Manual (APM) Section 133-g-j. Our committees on Affirmative Action and Diversity (CAAD), Academic Personnel (CAP), Faculty Welfare (CFW), and Privilege and Tenure (P&T) provided comments. The Santa Cruz Division supports the proposed revisions and notes that the broadening of the APM reflects the University's support of expanded definitions of families and children, and appears to address most, if not all, of the situations for which a request to stop the tenure clock would be necessary.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment.

Sincerely,
