Re: Approval of Simple Name Change for the UCB Graduate School of Education

Dear Michael:

In accordance with Section III.B.2 of the Universitywide Review Processes For Academic Programs, Units, and Research Units (the "Compendium"), the Academic Council has approved UC Berkeley's proposal for a simple name change of its Graduate School of Education to the Berkeley School of Education.

The Senate's three Compendium Committees are also unanimous in support of UC Berkeley's proposal. Their supporting memos are attached.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have additional questions.

Sincerely,

ACADEMIC COUNCIL CHAIR ROBERT HORWITZ

Dear Chair Horwitz,

At its April 6 meeting, the Coordinating Committee on Graduate Affairs (CCGA) voted to approve the proposal for a simple name change on the Berkeley campus. The proposal is to rename the Graduate School of Education to the Berkeley School of Education. It will impose no curricular, structural, or other changes to the School, nor will it impose any cost – other than minimal expenses connected to updating maps, etc. - on the campus.

Members voted and unanimously (with one abstention) agreed this was a simple name change.

CCGA concurs with the divisional Graduate Council on this matter. No further systemwide review is necessary.

Please let me know if I can answer any questions for you regarding this change.

Sincerely,
