UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES

RE: Proposed Revisions to SBL 128.D.2 (Vice Chairs)

Dear Edwina,

The University Committee on Rules and Jurisdiction has evaluated the proposed revisions to SBL 128.D.2 (Vice Chairs), which would make the vice chairs of all standing systemwide committees at-large members. UCR&J finds the proposal consistent with the Code of the Academic Senate.

Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Justification for Revisions to Bylaw 128.D.2: Vice Chairs

The proposed revision to bylaw 128D.2 regularizes the standing committee Vice Chairs such that non-Council committees will now have Vice Chairs that serve at large in the same manner as the Council represented committees. This revision will directly affect six committees: UCAF, UCIE, UCOLASC, UCOPE, UCP&T, and UCACC.

In recent years, the University Committee on Committees (UCOC) has run into difficulty appointing non-Council vice chairs who are also members of their local corresponding Divisional committees. Bylaw 128.D.2 currently reads “for committees not represented on the Academic Council, with the exception of the University Committee on Committees, the Vice Chair shall be appointed from among the Divisional appointees.” This bylaw has proved problematic for both reasons of timing and principle. With respect to timing, UCOC’s chair and vice chair appointments are made synchronously with local appointments to standing committees. Therefore, it is sometimes difficult to know if a UCOC-appointed vice chair will indeed be a divisional representative for the following year. In recent memory, there have been at least three cases in which this bylaw has caused problems.

With respect to principle, it is in the best interest of the Divisions to have a regular rotation of Senate members through their divisional committees to bring in new talent and fresh perspectives. On the other hand, one of UCOC’s principal interests is to develop and maintain effective faculty leaders. As currently written, bylaw 128.D.2 restricts this, given that UCOC is limited to current divisional committee members in selecting vice chairs for the non-Council committees. A tangential issue involves the possible conflict when the vice chair must substitute for the chair at a committee meeting while still representing his or her division. Therefore, it is useful and desired to allow for a vice chair to serve as an at-large member.

UCOC therefore proposes to make all vice chairs at-large members, regardless of whether the committee sits on Academic Council or not.
